PEACE AGAIN IN BALKAN STATES

Treaty Signed Ending Second War, But Third May
Follow Soon

BULGARIA GREATLY DISPLEASED WITH TERMS

New Confronted With Task of Running the Turks Out of Adrianople

BUCHAREST, Aug. 7.—The Balkan envoys met today for the final signing of the peace pact. They expected to adjourn before night. The envoys believe that Bulgaria will immediately attempt to retake Adrianople from the Turks.

Peace was concluded last night between the Balkan states. The agreement was arrived at only after an other exhibition of the utter helplessness of Bulgaria to face her ring of enemies.

The discussions in the peace conference had threatened to become interminable, but N. Majoresco, the Rumanian premier and president of the conference, clinched matters by threatening that unless Bulgaria accepted the modified frontier proposed by the allies, Rumania's army would occupy Sofia next Saturday.

The new frontier, as agreed to,
starts at a point on the old frontier west of the Struma river, follows the watershed to the west of the town of Strumitza, thence runs almost through the Struma valley to the Belash mountains and thence easterly in almost a straight line to the Mesta river, thus leaving the town of Strumitza, the port of Lages and Kanthi to Bulgaria, and the port of Kavala to Greece. The new frontier is a deep disappointment to the Bulgarians, who still nurse hopes for its eventual revision by the powers.

POWERS DEMAND THAT TURKEY EVACUATE

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Constantinople dispatches state that the powers' representatives have delivered to the Turks a demand that Turkey evacuate the fortress at Adrianople, and respect all the terms of the London treaty between Turkey and the Balkan states. It is believed the powers' action is to forestall almost certain Bulgarian aggression if Adrianople is not abandoned.

Sofia dispatches via Vienna say that Austria and Russia have reserved rights as great powers to revise in toto the treaty now being prepared at Bucharest by the contending Balkan envoys.

SETTLEMENT DOESN'T SETTLE ANYTHING

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The second Balkan peace congress having concluded peace on a basis of compromise, which is unsatisfactory to all the states concerned, except Rumania, the question is being asked, how soon a third Balkan war will break out.
Bulgaria has obtained, under the agreement reached in Bulgaria yesterday, a considerable portion of Macedonia, much more than the allies were at first inclined to give her, and about sixty miles of the Aegean seaboard, which will enable her to build her projected railway from Philippolis to the Aegean.

Bulgaria, however, deeply resents being deprived of Kavala, a port on Kavala Bay, which goes to Greece.
Also she is confronted with the task of expelling the Turks from Adrianople, it being clear that the powers will do nothing in this direction.
Bulgaria will seek to introduce in the peace protocol, to be signed at Bucharest, a reservation practically appealing to the European powers for a subsequent revision of the peace treaty.
Apparently the whole of the disputed country between the northernly course of the Vardar and Struma rivers goes to Serbia, including Ovchepoie, Veles, Istip and Koteana, while Demirhisar, Seres, Drama and Kavala fall to Greece.

According to a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Bucharest, the order to demobilize has been officially promulgated.

PROPOSES TO MAKE COAL FROM GARBAGE

PASADENA, Aug. 7.—The municipal incinerator, maintained at an expense of $600 monthly, may be made a revenue-producer to the extent of $2000 a month. Alphonso King, an inventor from Denver, says he has a formula for making high grade coal from garbage, and wants to make the city his partner. The inventor wants the city to expend $10,000 in installing his patented coal-making system at the incinerator and then to divide the profits equally with him.

Rev. Witter Died Alone On Desert

Former Resident of Santa Ana Met an Awful Death Near Coyote Wells

A dispatch from El Centro tells of the death of Rev. H.
H. Witter, who at one time preached at Garden Grove and who lived on Wellington avenue, Santa Ana, with his wife and daughter, Mrs. De Grae Edsworth Hahn, a teacher in the Santa Ana schools. The dispatch says:
EL CENTRO, Aug. 6.—The Rev. H. H. Witter, an aged minister of the Methodist church, perished thirst on the desert within reach of fresh water. His body was found today a mile from the main road near Coyote Wells. The horses also were dead from thirst. The harnessed animals could not drink from a twenty-gallon tank of water on the wagon. It is presumed Rev. Witter became crazed from the heat. He was 77 years old.
The driver and team had been missing since July 13.

Records Earthquake in the North Pacific

SAN JOSE, Aug. 7.—The seismol-ogical observatory of the University of Santa Clara reports that a clearly defined earthquake record was produced by the double horizontal seismograph yesterday afternoon beginning at 2:26:06. Calculations made by Prof.
Albert J. Newlin place the seat of the disturbance in the North Pacific ocean.

They left a placard reading: "If Mrs. relief from the heat today. Four prostrations and one death were reported yesterday. The heat is general in this section.

MEXICAN REFUGEES REACH SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 7.—Five hundred travel-stained refugees from Northern Sonora and Chihuahua arrived here today on special trains from El Paso and Nogales. They were placed on the reservation at Fort Rosecrans, where they will remain until settled political conditions permit of their return to Mexico. They will be under the direction of army officers, quartered in army tents and fed army rations. The party includes Emilio Kos-terlitzky, a Polish soldier of fortune, and many from both Mexican factions.

REDLANDS TO VOTE ON LIQUOR ORDINANCES

REDLANDS, Aug. 7.—The liquor right came to an issue last evening when the city trustees called a special election for Sept. 20 to vote on three initiative ordinances, two submitted by the temperance party and the third by the trustees at the request of many people of the city who were not satisfied with the other ordinance. The first calls for one wholesale liquor house, the second for a license for all hotels or ferry routes or more and the third for a license for hotels of 125 rooms or more. This

BOOSTER DAY IN OCTOBER PLANNED

Orange County Beaches Not Recognized in S. P. Rates from San Joaquin Valley

The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce is pronounced in its opinion that the board of education has made a mistake in deciding not to use the word polytechnic in the name of the new high school. The school board proposes to call the entire group the Santa Ana High School. The Chamber of Commerce believes that an advertising feature is lost when the word polytechnic is not used. The suggestion is made that the school be designated as the Santa Ana High and Polytechnic School.

The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors last night, and a committee consisting of Fred Rafferty, C. E.
Lammie, W. A. Zimmerman, H. T.
Rutherford and G. W. Minter was appointed to present the matter to the school board and ask that the name Polytechnic be used.

The directors last night decided to have a membership booster day for the Chamber of Commerce about the middle of October. Details for the day are to be worked out later.

O. S. Lewis called the attention of the board to the fact that the Southern Pacific gives special summer rates from the San Joaquin Valley to beach points in Los Angeles county, but does not recognize the Orange county beaches in making those rates.
This matter and the matter of getting cheaper rates on the Los Angeles-Santa Ana line was referred to the transportation committee, of which G. B. Shattuck is chairman.

Fred Rafferty was appointed as a committee to urge the weather bureau authorities to establish observation points in this county. This matter was taken up several months ago without success.

Secretary Metzger was instructed to prepare to print from 10,000 to 15,000 small holders for distribution.

OREGON PREACHER FACES GRAVE CHARGE

TACOMA, Aug. 7.—Rev. Robt. H.
Reed, pastor of the Methodist Church at McCleary, Washington, a graduate of Northwestern University and prominent in the Boy Scout movement, pleaded guilty before Federal Commissioner McMillan on the charge of sending obscene and lascivious matter through the mails. Under a $3000 bond Reed was bound over to the September federal grand jury. Being unable to furnish bond, he went to jail.

PROTEST AGAINST TELEPHONE COMBINE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—John W.
Rees, a physician of Perris, California, has filed a protest to the state railroad commission against the Southwestern Home Telephone Company, the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company and the U. S. Long Distance Telephone & Telegraph Company, alleging that joint service has been discontinued, to the public detriment.

TWO REFERENDUMS HAVE REQUIRED NAMES

Blue Sky and Water Commission Acts Will Be Held for for Popular Vote

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 7.—Referendum petitions from Los Angeles yesterday brought the totals against the
"blue sky" and water commission laws to a sufficient figure to invoke the referendum against them, thereby making them not effective at least until November, 1914.

Los Angeles filed 13,884 names against the "blue sky" law, making a total of 21,000, and 6802 against the water commission law, making a total of about 24,000. The same county filed 6176 names against the red light abatement bill.

FIVE HUNDRED KILLED IN CANTON RIOTING

CANTON, Aug. 7.—It is estimated that five hundred soldiers were killed in yesterday's rioting at the Canton east gate between government troops and rebels. The position of the city is regarded as dangerous. A department from an Indian regiment from Hong Kong has arrived to quell the rioting.

JUAY WAS COMPLETED AT TODAY'S SESSION

Is Made Up of Ten Married Men and Two Lone Bachelors

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—The jury to try Maury Diggs, ex-state architect, on the charge of violating the Mann white slave act by eloping to Reno with Marsha Warrington, was completed today. It contains ten married and two single men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—"Every man repeats an attack on a woman, whether physical or moral, so the jury will not be influenced if the defense attempts such tactics," declared Special Prosecutor Sullivan today before the resumption of the trial of Maury Diggs on the charge of violating the Mann white slave law.

Sullivan believes the Diggs defense plans to attack the character of Marsha Warrington, the Sacramento society girl whom Diggs is accused of taking to Reno for immoral purposes.
"The case against Diggs and Caminetti is so clear," said Sullivan, "that if we fail of a conviction I will think it is time to take a try change.
We have sufficient proof that the quartette occupied two barbers en route to Reno, that they registered at a hotel as husbands and wives, and occupied rooms together in the bungalow where they were discovered."

At the resumption of the trial today a special venire of twenty, ordered by Federal Judge Van Fleet, was sworn upon to complete the jury, eleven men being temporarily in the box.

The defense and prosecution each utilized another peremptory challenge during the efforts to complete the jury. The prosecution retains one peremptory and the defense two. The jury box was immediately refilled.
All efforts will be made to complete the jury as rapidly as possible.

Questions put by both prosecution and defense showed that marriage and the presence or absence of children in the families of the jurors would play an important part in the trial. All talesmen were asked regarding the age, sex and number of their children, and whether they were more prejudiced against a violation of the Mann white slave act by a married than a single man.

Both Diggs and Caminetti deserted their wives to run away with Miss Warrington and Miss Norris.

FIRES BREAK OUT IN NEW QUARTERS

Fighters Are Exhausted and May Ask for Help from the Militia

HMMET, Aug. 7.—Weighed firefighters, who since Sunday have been fighting the advancing column of flames in the Sage district, received two calls last night from new fire sources. At 4 o'clock word came from the Bergman ranch in the Aguanga district, about twelve miles from here, of a new fire that was threatening the homes of ranchers. A little later a message came that fire was sweeping up Wilson creek in the Cahulla valley. This is located in the San Jacinto mountains and is only a short distance from the big timber. There is no telephone communication with that section and nothing definite can be learned of the new fire.

A huge column of smoke and fire coming up from the Sage section told the story of an unavailing fight waged against the forest fire there. It was believed yesterday that the fire was under control and the worried firefighters came back to town. Great gusts of wind scattered embers in all directions last night and the fire is still pursuing its onward march toward the tall timber of the Cleveland forest reserve.

The low to cattle ranchers will be heavy. W. B. Tripp, Henry Bergman and Henry Meade are among the heaviest losers. Several families were linked up by the flames.

Supervisor John Shaver of San Jacinto has announced that the county will pay every fire fighter who assists in the work of subduing the flames.
The county has no special fund for this purpose, but will pay from the

RECOGNITION MADE PRIME ESSENTIAL

Huerta Announces Otherwise Will Not Treat With Lind—Administration Is Somewhat Puzzled.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Confronted on one hand by President Huerta's announcement that Envoys John Lind will be persona non grata unless America recognizes the Huerta administration, and on the other hand by uncertain constitutionalist opposition to Lind, the Wilson administration admits it is puzzled over the new phase of the Mexican situation. Suspicion is general, however, that Huerta is bluffing.
Officials in touch with Secretary Bryan say Lind's mission is one about which Huerta has nothing to say. They protest not to regard seriously the reports that Lind will not be permitted to enter Mexico City. Wilson and Bryan held a long conference today.
The embassy at Mexico City reported lengthily on conditions there.

An official statement issued at Mexico City last night said that "John Lind, special representative of President Wilson of the United States, now on his way to Mexico, will be persona non grata to this government unless he brings credentials in due form together with recognition of the government of Mexico."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Envoys Lind wired Secretary Bryan this veston today for Mexico on the battleship New Hampshire.

THREE AMERICANS KILLED IN ATTACK ON TRAIN

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 7.—In attack ing a passenger train on the Mexican Central railroad below Rancheria, Mexico, sixty-five miles below Juarez Tuesday night, rebels of Ortega's command slew two American women and one American man. The slain women, according to a courier who reached here from the scene of the battle, were Mrs. Thomas Dake, wife of a wealthy Chihuahua banker and prominent in El Paso and Chihuahua society, and her niece, Miss Maude Morrow.

Mrs. Dake was originally from Virginia and her husband is an English subject. She and Miss Morrow had been in El Paso for months on account of the disturbed conditions in Chihuahua, and were returning to their homes under the promise of the federal commander that all was safe in Chihuahua. The American man, who was slain, was a passenger on the train and was said to be a prominent mining man, but the courier could not learn his name.

The courier who brought the report of the slaying of the three Americans left Rancheria when the rebels were repulsed by the federals and he did not have a chance to learn the full extent of the fatalities on the passenger train. The train was crowded with American and Mexican refugees returning to Chihuahua and it is said that either the rebels fired into it or that federal bullets fired from the far side of the train slew the passengers.

EFFECTIVE WORK THROUGH A SINGLE ORGANIZATION

Unity of Action By Progressives In All Southern California Will Mark Coming Campaign.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—A central organization which will have charge of the Progressive party's campaign through all of Southern California was the result of the conference of Progressives held here yesterday, brief mention of which was made in dispatches to the Register yesterday.

State Senator Lee C. Gates presided at the meeting and Mrs. Frank A. Gibson presented the proposed plan of organization. Mrs. Gibson pointed out that in the coming state campaign it would be highly desirable for all the counties in Southern California to adopt some scheme under which there could be united and harmonious action. More effective work could be accomplished in this way, she said, than if the various counties attempted to conduct separate campaigns, each independent of the other, and for this reason it was proposed that a central organization be formed, which should work in conjunction with the county committees and the state committee. There should be no encroachment upon the privileges of any of the other committees, the idea being merely to secure organized action for the accomplishment of the best results for all concerned.

The idea met with instant favor on the part of those present, and the result of the discussion that followed was the adoption of the following plan of organization:
"This organization shall be known as the Progressive Committee of Southern California.
"It shall have charge of the campaign work of the Progressive party in the eight counties of Southern California, viz: Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside, San Diego and Imperial, and such other counties as may elect to join this organization.

The annual meeting shall be held on August 5 of each year, the anniversary of the organization of the Progressive party, at which time the officers of this committee and the members of the executive committee shall be selected. There shall also be special meetings held at such times and places as may be designated by the chairman of the committee.

The members of this Progressive committee of Southern California which has been provided for in the foregoing plan will take immediate steps to organize and get into line for the state campaign.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST STEAMER RAN AMUCK

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The Hamburg-American liner Imperator, queen of the seas, biggest and most wonderful steamer ever constructed, for six minutes last Saturday night in mid-ocean was beyond control.

In that time she described a complete circle, possibly half a mile in diameter, with the immense superstructure heeled over to starboard.
For part of the time she was plowing through the water at full speed.

Just before midnight the vessel's course was changed, throwing her over five degrees to port. At that moment a little gyroscopic pipe connected with the valve in the steam steering gear snapped and the rudder was put out of commission. Most of the passengers and retired and those who were still up went out on deck to learn the cause of the disaster to starboard. The big ship finally came to a full stop and righted herself.

EMBARGO MAY BE LIFTED NEXT

This Action Likely to Follow a Refusal to Treat With Envoy Lind

WASHINGTON THINKS HUERTA IS BLUFFING

Greatest Danger is Insult to Lind Which Would Mean Drastic Reply

(By John Nevin, United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—If Huerta insists that ex-Governor Lind, the American emissary, is persona non grata and refuses to consider his suggestions, this of itself will not mean armed intervention. This was made plain today by administration officials. If Huerta takes this stand, however, it is probable the embargo on the Mexican insurgents' importing of arms and ammunition from America will be raised immediately.
A majority of the Senate favors such action.

Huerta's official declaration that he will not receive Lind unless his government is recognized is not taken seriously by Wilson or Bryan. They will make no comment nor announce any definite decision until Lind reports. The President does not believe Huerta will regard Lind's mission as anything but peaceful.

The constitutionalists, through Col.
Eduardo Hays, head of their junta here, advise Wilson and Bryan that if they are permitted to purchase arms in America they will overmar-Huerta within three months. Because of these facts it is not believed Huerta will move until he hears Lind's proposals.

The most serious danger of the situation is that personal insults or danger may be offered Lind. In this event the steadiest measures would necessarily follow. There is believed to be a possibility that the attacks on Lind in newspapers favoring Huerta may have been inspired to arouse the Mexican populace against Wilson's envoy. An assault on Lind would be a firebrand, forcing the administration's hand to compel punishment of those responsible, and would be backed up by the entire armed force of the nation.

TEHRAN SCENE OF TRIBESMEN'S WAR

TEHRAN, Persia, Aug. 7.—Fighting has been in progress in the streets of Tehran since midnight between Bakhtiari tribesmen and national troops. The streets where the foreign legations are situated are the path of firing. Police clashed with the clansmen in various sections of the city.

Many are reported killed. Hundreds of tribesmen are reported hurrying toward the city from the hills.

MISSOURI WOMEN WILL HELP ROAD CAMPAIGN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 7.—Missouri women are going to do a lot of work on the state's "Good Roads days," August 20 and 21. It is not likely that many will join the gangs with picks and shovels or manipulate the scrapers, but they will serve lunches to the road workers the two days. The Jackson county department of the Old Trails road committee, Daughters of the American Revolution, has tendered its aid.

sented to the emperor. His reception was cordial. The streets

WON'T STAND FOR DISTRICT

Stanton People Do Not Intend to Vote Special Good Roads Tax

Anaheim Gazette: Three hundred voters of Stanton and contiguous precincts in the west county are up in arms against the formation of an assessment district for raising funds to pave two and a quarter miles of highway on the county road, west of this city which have not been included in the county highway system. At a meeting held at Magnolia school house some evenings ago resolutions were unanimously adopted declaring it to be the sense of the tax payers assembled that the road be paved at county expense, and that no assessment district be contemplated. The action of the westsiders spells defeat of efforts to raise money by formation of an assessment district, for in other quarters in the region which would probably be included in the district objection to the proposition has been voiced during the week. The matter is now up for consideration before the supervisors, and what action will be taken by the board is as yet an unknown quantity. At the time of laying out the county highway system some months ago this two and a quarter miles of road was omitted, for the reason that it lay within the incorporated limits of the west side municipality. Bonds in $1,250,000 were voted last year, and one hundred and seven miles of county highway laid out. Some weeks ago the Stanton trustees voted to abandon this stretch of highway to the county, but at that time all available moneys in the county road fund had been apportioned to construction of other roads, and no funds remain for paying this portion of the west side highway. The system of paved county roads abuts this thoroughfare east and west, and an unpaved stretch of two and a quarter miles remains to be accounted for.

In this juncture of affairs, it was some weeks ago suggested by the supervisors that an assessment district be formed to raise funds for defraying a portion of the cost of paving this road. The board suggested that it would appropriate $10,000 for this purpose, and as the paving would cost $20,000, it asked that the balance be raised by an assessment upon property contiguous to the road. This action followed a similar course at La Habra, where residents of that section had agreed to raise $35,000 for five and a half miles of paved county highway, contingent upon an appropriation of $15,000 by the supervisors from the current expense fund for that purpose. Other sections of the county have in view formation of similar assessment districts for extension of the county's paved highway system.

A condition and not a theory seems to confront westsiders as people of this city. The road is one of the important highways leading into town, and with two and a quarter miles remaining unpaved the road hitherward from the Los Angeles county line will in all probability be avoided by rough travelers. Failure to form an assessment district will probably set over paving until an indefinite time. The people of this city have been asked to raise $10,000 or $12,000 for protecting the proposed concrete bridge across the river at Olive. The supervisors declare that unless this protection be afforded, the bridge will not be built, nor will the paved highway east of town be constructed. These two important highways leading into this city from the east and west are now up for serious consideration by property owners and business men hereabouts.

SEEKING A SITE FOR GREAT WIRELESS STATION

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 7.—To recommend a site for a radio station more powerful than any now on the coast and equal, if not surpassing, the one at Arlington, Va., is the mission of Carl A. Carlson of the corps of civil engineers, United States navy, now here.

According to Engineer Carlson, two sites are under consideration. One is a 150-foot elevation just north of Chollas Heights reservoir; another is an elevation near Murphy canyon, across Mission valley.

FARMER COOKS BEANS BY LIGHTNING FLASH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—A farmer in Washington's outskirts has contributed the latest aid to a reduced cost of living. He is William Williams, a trucker, who went out to gather some string beans for the family table the other day. Much to his surprise he discovered that they were deliciously cooked.

He thought for a time that he had out-Burbanked Burbank, but a little reflection divulged the reason for the new variety of beans. In planting he had placed wires between the poles, and during the recent storm lightning struck the wires and cooked the beans.

MILLIONAIRE'S LIFE SAVED BY HIS DOG

PASADENA, Aug. 7.—Trapped by a falling tree in Lonesome Pine canyon, near Mount Wilson, in a path where few ever came, and the weight of the tree crushing him to death inch by inch, R. J. Glashure, millionaire retired broker of New York, was saved by the intelligence of his collie dog, yesterday.

Glasure is a collector of rare insects. His laboratory is one of the finest in the world. He spares no pains to secure an addition to it. With his dog he came upon the old tree and at its roots he found an insect. He dug for it and then the tree gave way and pinned him across his back. The dog stood near for several minutes and watched his master's plight. Then he trotted off down the canyon.

Deputy Fire Warden M. F. Juddkins emerged from his cabin door down the mountain. A dog stood there and whined. He would run off a bit and then come back. Juddkins sensed something was wrong. The dog yelped with joy when Juddkins followed him. Up the mountain they went, the dog leading. In an hour they came upon the millionaire pinned by the log. Glasure was rescued. He is not seriously hurt.

USE IS FOUND FOR WASTE CANTALOUPE

IMPERIAL, Aug. 7.—There has for a long time been a question among cantaloupe growers of the valley as to the profitable disposition of the tons of unmarketable cantaloupes that heretofore have rotted in the fields after the crop had been marketed.

T. D. McCall, on his ranch just east of Imperial, believes he has solved the problem in a great measure. He dried the waste cantaloupes on his ranch by halving them and laying them in the sun, and is feeding the product to his milk cows, with alfalfa hay.

BURGLAR CUT SCREEN STOLE BOTTLE MILK

Home of I. O. Wilson on North Main Street Was Entered
Tuesday Evening

A burglar entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Wilson at the southeast corner of Main and Eighth streets Tuesday evening while they were away from home. So far as has been learned, the thief got away only with a bottle of milk. Possibly he was only a hungry burglar and wanted some bread to mix with the milk, which he found in a bottle at the rear porch where the milk-man had delivered it. Possibly he was frightened away before he had started searching the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left the house about 7:30 o'clock, and returned about 9. Some of the neighbors heard someone moving around the house, but thought nothing of it until the next day when Mr. Wilson said that the house had been entered. Nothing was disturbed in the house, and it was not until yesterday morning that it was found that the house had been entered. A slash about two feet long was found in the rear screen. Through this hole the visitor reached in and unhooked the rear screen. So far nothing has been missed except the bottle of milk.

I. O. Wilson's home was burglarized when he lived at the corner of Ross and Tenth streets by two youths, one of whom was afterward killed while attempting burglary and the other of whom is now serving a sentence in San Quentin. At that time most of the stolen articles were not missed for two or three days. Nearly everything stolen at that time was recovered in a Los Angeles pawnshop.

LECTURE IS FULL OF GOOD INFORMATION

Attorney Fred L. Hunt Comments McDannald and County on Views

Everyone who hears D. W. McDannald's lecture in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce declares that it is full of good things about Orange County. McDannald has a carefully selected lot of Orange County views, no part of the county being neglected, and he has Orange County data down pat. Today the Board of Supervisors received a letter from Attorney Fred L. Hunt of Los Angeles, who has property in this county, in which McDannald's lecture and views are highly praised. The letter follows:

Los Angeles, Aug. 6, 1913.
The Board of Supervisors, Orange County, Cal.

Gentlemen:
In company with some friends from the east the other day, I called at the Chamber of Commerce in Los Angeles and during our visit we sat in the lecture room to listen to some of the gospel of western thrift, representing different localities of the Southwest, and while we were there a lecture on Orange County was given by Mr. McDannald and I was much pleased with his stereopticon views and I wish to compliment your board and him upon the immense amount of solid information of Orange County's wonderful resources and productiveness as contained in that brief lecture.

Although I have been for the last three years a booster for Orange County I had never had represented to me in concrete form such evidence of what an important position the county really does occupy until I heard that lecture. Since then I have gone with a number of people to see the scenes depicted and have told numbers of people to visit the Chamber of Commerce.

I noted that immediately after the lecture some eight or ten people gathered around Mr. McDannald for additional information.

That is a sort of missionary work that is bound to do some good and although the county yield is now tremendous there are many acres yet to be reduced to a high state of cultivation. Again thanking you for the pleasure I received, I am Very respectfully yours,

FRED L. HUNT.

PLENTY OF PROOF

From People You Know—From Santa Ana Citizens

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Santa Ana, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

E. O. McKinney, 711 E. Pine St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "For years I suffered from pain in my side and over my right kidney. It was a throbbing pain and was often so severe that it seemed as if a knife had been thrust into me. I thought the trouble was caused by heavy lifting, but I couldn't get relief. On the advice of one who had used Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. I soon found relief, and I continued taking them until the pain had gone. The action of my kidneys was regulated, too. I have only had need of Doan's Kidney Pills once since. Hard work brought on an attack of backache, but a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills fixed me up all right. I have just as much faith in Doan's Kidney Pills now as I did when I publicly endorsed them some years ago."

TROUT FARM TO BE STARTED IN MILL CREEK
SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 7.—Mill Creek and tributary streams will be densely populated with finny habits in the future if the plan of the Forest Home management will result successfully.

On this little stream seven water holes are to be made and into this about 1,000,000 trout eggs are to be placed October 7. This is all fair enough, but now for the plan. The company has obtained some sort of special permit from the State Fish and Game Commission, whereby it is O. K. to raise and sell trout, the year round, to the various hotels of this district. In other words, this is to be a big league trout farm.

But there is still another corner to the deal. The trout heaven will be open to fishermen, but each rod and reel expert will have to pay the market price per pound for all the fish that he catches from the water, that is, if he wishes to carry the same away with him to show the power of his skill and cunning.

Those who have looked into the proposition say that at least 1,000,000 fish are bound to escape each season from the hatchery, thus giving Mill Creek more than its usual share of the elusive members of the finny tribe.

WAGON AND TWO AUTOMOBILES BUMP

Screech of Car Turning Fourth and Main Corner Got on Horse's Nerves

The screech of a street car turning the corner at Fourth and Main this morning frightened a horse hitched to a wagon loaded with watermelons. The horse bumped into G. B. Shattuck's automobile, and Shattuck's automobile bumped into a second automobile. It was a double-plat feat not duplicated since Chris Haverer, driver of an auto bus between Orange and Santa Ana, drove his automobile into the rear of Hahn's auto bus, causing Hahn's car to bump into the rear of T. A. Magee's auto.

E. Erhart, who lives on Minnie street, was unloading watermelons on Fourth street in front of the Santa Ana Produce Co. store when the electric car came shrieking around the curve. Erhart's horse jumped, and before Erhart could catch the bit the wagon bumped into the rear end of an automobile owned by G. B. Shattuck, owner of the Tustin Packing Co. Shattuck's machine was shunted into an automobile owned by J. C. Ostrander of Exeter, Tulare county.

Shattuck's machine had lamps broken and a fender bent. Ostrander has a rear lamp broken and the back of the tonneau deeply dented. Erhart paid him $10. The wagon and horse escaped damage.

George Bradford, living at Riverside Hotel, Colusa, Calif., reports that he had a very severe case of kidney trouble and backache, which also affected the secretions. He says, "I took five boxes of Foley Kidney Pills and they cured me." All over California people report that Foley Kidney Pills "cure." Rowley Drug Co., and White Cross Drug Co.—Advertisement.

CHURCH WORK IN SUMMER

Father and Mother took it seriously. Even with the thermometer at 100 the customary pews were filled. Grandma was there, too, with a great palm leaf fan, which she swung back and forth sleepily with sluggish but regular rhythm. Mother snapped a jerky little black fan. Japanese fans were considered ungodly, as the red and yellow pictures took the eyes off the minister.

It was not thought proper to suspend or vary the sessions of Sunday school. The momentum of regular attendance would be lost. Besides, the young folks might go to walk, which would be demoralizing.

It is easy in these flippant days to laugh at the intense older generation. There was iron in the blood then. Even if it did make one's backbone as stiff as the old high pews, there was a foundation on which institutions were built to last. Today the majority of people on Sunday are eating the dust of the next automobile ahead, roasting the umpire at the ball park, consuming peanuts and corn balls at pleasure resorts. If that is the best use they can make of it, let them do thus with clear conscience, and may the Lord be with them.

Still, it isn't always a day of rest. It is much cooler in the shady church than out on the sunbaked road. The well-trained choir may sound just as well as the squeaky merry-go-round. The minister may say quite as new things as the bark of the palmist.

For those cooped in towns, no Sunday is good that does not bring God's fresh air and sunshine. Happily trolleys and parks provide this for millions.

To find listeners in the Babel of a summer Sunday, the minister must speak the language of those who hear. A problem from metaphysics may interest him. But Tom, Dick, and Harry will go to sleep. He may not talk the language of the street. But he must talk about the problems of the street, the shop, the office, and the kitchen.

17 MEXICANS KILLED FOR ASSAULT ON AMERICAN WOMEN

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 7.—Seventeen Mexicans have paid with their lives for mistreating the daughters of Matthew Gourd, an American farmer, near Tampico, last Monday. American farmers participating in the execution of the penalty, according to information, regarded as reliable, received here today.

The Americans, joined by Mexican land owners in the district of Atascadero, near Tampico, organized a posse and rode into the hills in search of the band of outlaws which tied Gourd and robbed him and afterwards offered indignities to two daughters in sight of their helpless father. The band was located and defeated in a fight and several of its members were captured.

The seventeen men killed by the posse included those slain in the fighting and those put to death afterward. It is reported that twenty-four women of the Atascadero colony have gone to Tampico as a precautionary measure. The government here does not admit the truth of the assault upon Mr. Gourd and his daughters.

TELEPHONE GIRLS RESUME STRIKE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 7.—The strike of telephone operators and maintenance men against the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Company, which was announced Tuesday as settled, practically was renewed yesterday.

An indignation meeting of the operators, called to protest against the terms of settlement, resulted in the announcement that none of the striking operators would return to work until the company first had made amends for its treatment of six of the first eight girls who sought reinstatement.

The eight were delegated by the strikers to test the sincerity of the company on the promise to take them back without discrimination. Two of the girls reported that when they went to the south exchange, where they worked before the strike, they were told that all places were taken and that they must apply at the main office. Two others went directly to the main office, and they said, were told to report again today. Two others said they were told they must enter the company's training school at $5 a week, though before the strike they received $30 a month.

Editor Register: Replying to Subscriber's letter published in Monday's Register, I would say that if the automobiles did not monopolize the shade, the poor, suffering horse would not have to stand in the blazing sun.

I have driven for blocks in search of shade for our horse, but all in vain.

I hope this draws the attention of the proper authorities to this matter.

An Interesting Question

Mr. Editor:—A most interesting question is, and ever has been: Does the mind, spirit, soul, the eyes of man, continue conscious functioning on a higher vibratory plane (hence invisible) after the change called death, and can it, under certain conditions, communicate with persons still occupying the physical body?

For many years I have had strong proof that it does. But many doubt it. So when I heard that Edward K. Earle was demonstrating independent slate writing, to the satisfaction of many, at the spiritualists' camp meeting near Los Angeles, but who was denounced as a "sleek faker" by a few persons, I determined to go to the meeting and see if I could get independent slate writing under absolutely test conditions.

For over fifty years I have been an amateur prestidigitator, and consequently know something about the conditions necessary for producing illusions, or tricks.

I took two slates which I had had for twenty years, carved my initials on the frame for future identification, cleaned the slates thoroughly, screwed them together and had my wife pour melted paraffin, with which she was sealing bottled apricot juice, over the screw heads, completely covering them with wax, and I said to myself, Now if I keep these slates in my possession until they are opened, and then I find one intelligent sentence on the inside surface of either slate, I will know there is an intelligence and a law around us that we scientists know nothing about. For no scientist on earth knows of a law by which such a thing can be done.

Sunday, July 27, I arrived on the camp ground early in the morning with my slates. In engaged a tent for a week. And during the week I quietly watched Mr. Earle's public demonstrations of what he claimed was spirit power. And I became thoroughly satisfied, in my own mind, that Mr. Earle was not a trickster. I had never seen Mr. Earle before, and did not speak to him until Friday.

Saturday morning I took my slates to Mr. Earle's cottage (he did not then even know my name) and was introduced into a small room, with two windows in it. He asked me to be seated by one of the windows, and seated himself in front of me, and while I held one end of the slates, he held the other. We thus sat for about two minutes, when he said: "Put them under your feet, sit quietly, concentrating your mind on the one you wish a message from, while I answer a letter."

He then sat at his desk by the other window and wrote for perhaps ten minutes, when he came back and sat down in front of me, telling me to pick up my slates, which I did; and he held them with me for about a minute, when he said: "Harry says they are through." Mr. Earle claims that his brother Harry, who died it, and does all the slate writing. Without opening the slates I paid Mr. Earle, and returned to a conference meeting holding in the pavilion, and which I had left less than thirty minutes before. At the close of this meeting I briefly related the foregoing, and said that I was going to ask C. E. Buss, president of the California State Spiritualists' Association, to open the slates. And all who wished to were invited to remain and see if there was any writing on the slates. All remained.

Now I was not seeking a message from any of my loved ones in spirit life. Only a name, under these test conditions, from some prominent past worker on the spiritualist platform. And I had written on a sheet of paper a list of a dozen names, hoping that out of the number some one would have the time, ability and desire, to reach me.

The first three names on this list were Moses Hull, Prof. Lockwood, Prof. James S. Loveland, three of our most widely known spiritualist lecturers. I had also written the name of Dr. Gallup, a magnetic healer in Santa Ana for twenty-five years.

With the end of a screw driver Mr. Buss broke away the wax from over and around the screw heads, and took out the screws, and took the slates apart, and showed the audience that the surface of each slate was full of writing. He then read from one slate:

"D. Edson Smith. 'Esteemed Friend:—I am appointed a committee of one to convey to you our greetings from the land of Peace and Eternal Rest. Kindest regards to you and all."

"Sincerely,
"MOSES HULL,
"PROF. LOCKWOOD,
"PROF. JAMES LOVELAND,
"WM. T. STRAP,
"WM. JAMES,
"DR. GALLUP."

Now I had not thought of receiving the names of Wm. T. Stead or Wm. James, because I never knew them personally; and, besides, they were such great, internationally known persons that I never dreamed they would come to help poor little me demonstrate a great truth. Some readers may not know that Wm. James was president of Harvard University, and president of the Psychological Research Society of America. Everybody knows Wm. T. Stead.

The body of the above message, including the name of Moses Hull, was written in slate pencil. Prof. Lockwood's name was written in red; Loveland's, Stead's and James' names were written in gold. Dr. Gallup's name was written in green.

On the inner surface of the other slate was written in slate pencil—gold, green, dull ink and blue: "My Own Darling Husband Edson. I believe this to be the greatest and final proof of spirit return; that we can talk on any depth, length or space to reach our loved ones."

Flora especially wishes to send love to you, as do Father and Mother Smith, Ralph Smith, Mrs. Baker Ames, many and all to you and Frances, and wish you every success, good health and prosperity.
"God bless you, my darling."
"Your devoted and loving wife,"
"MENNIE SMITH."

Flora is my sister, Frances my present wife, Ralph the son of one our prominent business men, Carey R. Smith.

D. E. S. Now if this slate writing is a "fake"—a trick—someone knows how it is done. And to anyone who will show me how it is done so that I, at will, can get similar writing, under similar conditions, I will cheerfully give him or her one thousand dollars in gold.

And to any honest skeptic, or investigator, who believes I am telling the truth to the best of my ability, I will gladly show these slates any Sunday, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Yours for Progress,
D. EDSON SMITH,

AUTO HIGHWAYMEN AGAIN AT WORK

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—Once more the automobile robbers who have been terrorizing the country side, were heard from last night, when in the road near Athens-by-the-Sea, they held up an automobile occupied by J. E. Miller and H. G. Watkins.

Miller and Watkins, accompanied by their wives, were on their way home from the beach, when they were stopped in the middle of the road by three young men, one of whom wore a mask and flourished a revolver. The machine stopped and the highwaymen proceeded to rob at leisure. They took $10 from Watkins and $15 from Miller, and a valuable peridot stickpin from Mrs. Watkins.

BACON DECLARES HE IS CRITICAL SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Chairman Bacon of the senate foreign relations committee declared today that "the Mexican situation is of the utmost gravity, and there is nothing beyond that world 'utmost.'" The declaration came on the senate floor when Bacon pleaded that partisan politics be eliminated in the handling of an admittedly vital crisis. He demanded that the President be permitted an opportunity to settle the situation peacefully. The declaration caused a sensation among the members.

The statement was called forth by the demand of Clark that his recent demand for a senate inquiry into Mexican affairs be referred to the foreign affairs committee. Clark taunted the Democrats with having no definite Mexican policy, and said: "It has come to pass in Mexico that no man is so poor as one owning allegiance to our flag." Bacon asserted that Clark's plan would not bring results, and pleaded for an opportunity for the President to put into effect "the plan he has already formulated."

Norris of Nebraska then declared he saw no Presidential disrespect in Clark's demand, adding that the Cuban situation when America stepped in was a tempest in a teapot compared to the Mexican imbroglio.

Studebaker

Six Cylinder Has Arrived

THE STUDEBAKER "SIX" TOURING CAR marks the most advanced stage in the development of six-cylinder design. It brings within reach of a moderate income those advantages of flexibility and smoothness in which a good six-cylinder motor excels.

The driving power of this car is characteristic. The pull of the silent motor is steady, even and flexible. When slowing down in traffic the "Six" responds to the throttle with remarkable ease, while on the roads the continuous flow of power from the six cylinders gives an uninterrupted smoothness to the motion of the car. The "Six" motor is not only powerful, it is also simple, well-nigh frictionless and highly efficient.

The Studebaker "Six" is a luxurious car. It is, of course, electrically started and lighted. The six-passenger body is commodious and convenient, with deep, restful cushions and complete equipment.

The long wheel base, ample tires and easy, resilient springs make the car exceptionally comfortable.

SOCIETY

AT TUSTIN HOME

Helping Hand Society Held Pleasant Social Affair Last Evening

The ladies of the First Baptist Church do nothing by halves and when they in the capacity of the Helping Hand Society decided to hold their regular monthly meeting yesterday at the county home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Marchant at Tustin it was a foregone conclusion that a pleasant and profitable gathering was in store for them.

Transportation was furnished for all and on arriving at the ranch spacious tables were found prepared under the shade of the walnut trees for the tempting picnic lunch which had been prepared by the members.

Fancy and useful needle work and the discussion of the lunch occupied the time until the business hour in the afternoon when the monthly session was held in the out-door temple, the president, Mrs. F. A. Holbrook, presiding.

A special feature of the occasion was a touching tribute to the president to Mrs. E. J. Foster, an active and earnest member who leaves next month for a stay of a year or more in her old home in Indiana. Others followed with earnest and tender remarks, expressing their appreciation of the many kindly services rendered to the society and the church by Mrs. Foster and extending to her their sincerest well wishes during her stay in the East.

The only men who had the good fortune to be present were L. L. Marchant and J. Wiley Harris, who acted as chauffeurs for the ladies and rendered them some assistance during the lunch hour.

Farewell For Missionaries

An otherwise happy family gathering saddened by the approaching departure of members of the family was that given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Donaldson at 1066 South Main street. It was happy in that the Donaldsons were enjoying a visit from their daughter and her husband, the Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Koons, who have been in the mission field in Korea for several years past and have been home on a furlough, and the evening was saddened by the fact that Rev. and Mrs. Koons must leave on Friday for San Francisco where they will take the steamer for the Orient.

Cut flowers were used in the decorations in the Donaldson home both in the adorning of the lovely rooms and on the snowy lines of the dining table where dainty refreshments were served. Selections on the griffin table, which Rev. Koons is taking to Korea with him, were enjoyed by the members of the family and the intimate friends who were present.

Entertains at Orange

Mrs. Murray Vandermast entertained yesterday afternoon at her home on South Shaffer street in Orange with a very delightful and informal party which a number of ladies from Santa Ana attended.

Beautiful decorations of ferns and Genianthus were used in the lovely rooms of the Vandermast home. Fancy needlework and gay conversation whiled away the afternoon. Dainty refreshments in two courses were served.

About twelve enjoyed Mrs. Vandermast's hospitality. Santa Ana guests were Mesdames Asa Vandermast, Walter Vandermast, Walter Prince, Miss Schalkamp and her visiting friend, Miss Fisher, and Mrs. Burns of Los Angeles.

Missionary Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The parlors were beautifully decorated with large jardinières of hydrangeas and sweet peas. The ladies who acted as hostesses were Mrs. Will Lindsey, Mrs. Pressley Thompson, Mrs. Steele Finley, Mrs. J. E. Collins. The subject for the afternoon's study was "The Women's General Missionary Society." The devotional service was led by Mrs. Juliette Smith. In the absence of Mrs. C. C. Collins, Miss Adda Cowan read a paper prepared by Mrs. Collins on the subject, Methods of awakening an interest for the support of the special work assigned to the W. G. M. Society.

Mrs. Leigh Galloway read a very interesting paper on the personal element in missionary meetings. Mrs. Harry Dean gave a very complete account of the thank offering, its history, growth and prominence in women's, young women's and junior societies. Mrs. D. L. Anderson read the recommendations of the last Women's General Missionary meeting.

Words of thanksgiving were given in answer to roll call.

Mrs. Sarah Finley, Mrs. Kellogg and Mrs. Warren gave reports from the Congress of Reformers, held this week in Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Will Lindsey, chairman of the Aid Society, urged all the members to come out next Wednesday to the regular meeting of that society which will be held in the church parlor. After the regular business the hostesses, assisted by Carolyn and Ruth Finley and Helen Miller, served delicious ice cream and a variety of cake.

W. R. C. Tea

The monthly tea given by the W. R. C. will occur tomorrow at the G. A. R. hall at 2:30 o'clock. The chairman of the tea is Mrs. Catherine Fisher, president of the corps. Every one is invited.

Embroidery Club Meets

The Embroidery Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. L. Galbraith at 1029 West Third street. Pretty decorations of small bright sunflowers were used. Refreshments of luscious watermelon, muskmelon, punch and wafers were served. Merry conversation and fancy needlework were enjoyed during the afternoon. The club holds its next meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Jumper at 111 South Broadway.

Canton Club Meets

The ladies of the Canton Club held their usual monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the parlors of the Odd Fellows hall. Mesdames Matilda Lawton and Martin had charge of the meeting, which was very enjoyable. Mrs. A. E. Shoemaker, who recently returned from an automobile trip to the northern part of the state, was prevailed upon to give an account of the trip and did so in a very interesting manner.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the ladies at the Dragon.

Finley-Etchison

The culmination of a romantic courtship that has extended over several months came yesterday evening when Edna Elva Etchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Etchison, and Vivian R. Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Finley, of 824 East Second street, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents five miles southwest of Santa Ana.

The simple ring ceremony was performed at 8:30 by Rev. Staff of the Congregational church of this city. The bride and groom came in and took their places under an archway of asparagus fern and Shasta daisies to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Miss Hazel Chapman. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. Edmund Finley, a brother of the groom and Miss Lela Mosier of Redondo Beach, a chum of the bride. The bride was simply but attractively gowned in white veil with unembroidered drapery of the same material.

After the ceremony the assembled guests sat down to a bountiful and delicious wedding supper. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present.

groom were present. Many beautiful and costly presents were given to the happy couple, who are both very well known in Santa Ana and the surrounding country where they have lived for several years. The bride is a very pretty and accomplished member of the Orange County Business College. At present she is employed at Taylor Brothers confectionery where she will continue for some time. The groom is also employed by the same company. For a long time he was a trusted employee of the Wells-Fargo Express company in their office here. After a short stay at one of the beaches Mr. and Mrs. Finley will be at home at 604 F street.

Annual Picnic Yesterday

The Veteran Rebekahs enjoyed their annual picnic at Balboa yesterday where a large number of the members gathered. Many of them went down to the beach by auto truck while others boarded the 10:30 car. Basket lunches were provided by the ladies and these were spread on tables at the A. C. Bowers cottage where everyone satisfied his beach appetite. Selections on the griffin table were enjoyed during the noon hour. The usual beach pleasures of boating, bathing and fishing made the afternoon pass very rapidly. The return trip was made on the 4:30 electric car. The husbands of several of the members were guests at the picnic.

The ladies were glad to have with them one of their former members, Mrs. Jennie McCombs, now a resident of Los Angeles.

Shower and Farewell Party

Last evening a shower and farewell party was given at Delhi in honor of Miss Mary Meador, who will leave in a short time to take up her studies in a three-year course at Berkeley. Mr. J. M. Otto kindly gave the use of his hall, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. The presents that Miss Meador received were many and beautiful.

The large number of Miss Meador's friends who were present enjoyed many merry games and delightful music. Delicious and bountiful refreshments of coffee, sandwiches, punch, ice cream and cake were served.

Personal

Miss J. P. Meaton of New Burnside, Ill., and Miss Anna Hopkins of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., have arrived here for a summer's visit at the home of their sister, Mrs. D. W. Mead.

Miss Viola Hill went to Long Beach today to be the guest of Mrs. Robt. Flook. Miss Hill will speak to the ladies of the Long Beach Baptist Mission Circle on her work while in Porto Rico.

Tom Hill of the firm of Hill & Walker went to Newport this morning expecting to make a good catch of yellowtail.

MR. WARNOCK ILL

D. F. Warnock of Los Angeles, who is a stockholder in the firm of E. S. Gilbert & Co. and a close personal friend of Mr. Gilbert, was stricken with an attack of appendicitis last Sunday evening, and for a time his friends despaired of saving his life. Yesterday there was some improvement in his condition and hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Gilbert was in San Diego on an automobile outing, when informed by wire of his friend's serious illness and made an all night drive in his automobile to get home. He has been going to Los Angeles daily to look after Mr. Warnock, who has no near relatives in Southern California and has for years lived in a Los Angeles hotel.

A BRICK BUILDING WILL BE ERECTED

Orange News: From dependable sources it has been reported that a new brick business block is in prospect for West Chapman avenue. It is stated that A. Price contemplates the construction of a one-story building on his property at the corner of Chapman avenue and Olive street and will begin the work at the earliest possible date.

The dimensions of the building, or to what use it will be put, have not been made known. The S. M. Cradick Realty Company at present occupies the location and holds a lease there, but Mr. Cradick stated today that they would not stand in the way of the new building. It is understood that the present frame building on the property will be moved west to make way for the new structure.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Auditorium
It's getting to be something of a 'chestnut,' this phrase that "there is a fine show on at the Auditorium," but as Henry Ward Beecher used to remark with his frequency: "Ain't it the truth?" It is!

Therefore, please allow us to proceed with our story.
There are to be four big reels of up-to-date moving pictures and also four fine vaudeville attractions.

Dansworth and Valder are billed as a high-class Irish singing and comedy team. They come highly endorsed, as they have traveled over nearly all the big Eastern circuits.

Sim Dimpsey, well, everybody knows him. "The big fat fellow." He looks so much like ex-President Taft that people who did not know him mistook him for the jovial big man of time and of. Sim is very funny. He has in past years been accused of keeping some of the biggest audiences on the Orpheum circuit in an hilarious roar.

Walter Balfour is a high baritone with a beautiful voice, which he uses in a most artistic way. He sings a few grand opera arias, but his best work is with the popular classics that the usual theater audience loves so well. No one who hears Mr. Balfour ever goes away disappointed.

The Flying Alberts are also on this week's bill and will thrill their audiences with their sensational flying trapeze performance. Incidentally, a considerable amount of fun is introduced into their work. They are very clever. Tonight and the rest of the week.

NEW INVENTION TO HELP TRAPPED MINERS

—ITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 7.—Mine operators of this vicinity today are planning to try out a device recently perfected here at the United States Bureau of Mines by which it is believed miners caught in cave-ins might be saved.

The device is a portable telephone with a headgear greatly resembling that worn by telephone operators. It is planned to have at least one miner in every group of workers or in every isolated section of a mine wear one of these gear to which is attached a transmitter and super-sensitive plate and a wire which reaches outside, thus leaving a medium for conversation with persons outside the mine. The wire is always laid along the bottom of a shaft or bore protected so that falling earth or mineral will not break it.

RATTLESNAKE IS 30Y

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—While attempting to kill a large rattlesnake Tuesday afternoon in San Gabriel Canyon, Arden Wildes, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. L. J. Wildes, 416 North Westlake avenue, was bitten in the arm, and despite the efforts of nurses and doctors of the Crocker Street hospital, died early yesterday morning.

Arden and his two sisters, while playing in the canyon, found a rattlesnake and tried to kill it. The older sister, Ethel, prodded the reptile with a long stick. The snake struck, biting Arden in the arm below the elbow.

The boy was taken to camp, where an antitoxin was administered and was then hurried to the Crocker Street hospital, where several nurses and doctors spent nearly twelve hours fighting for his life.

PRESIDENT'S WIFE FOR HOME INDUSTRY

WINDSOR, Vt., Aug. 7.—Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, is setting an example here that local storekeepers wish other summer residents would follow. Since the arrival of the Wilson family, practically everything in the way of household supplies has been purchased in Windsor. Most of the summer residents have their groceries and household supplies shipped from Boston or New York, under the impression that they can get better quality and variety. The Wilsons had a picnic in town two days before Mrs. Jeffries, the housekeeper, began what are now daily visits to the local butcher shop and grocery and the stalls where truck farmers sell fresh vegetables and green goods.

OUR HOSPITALS ARE FOUND SUPERIOR

American Physicians Traveling Abroad Declare This Country's System Best

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Taken by and large, the American hospital is superior to the best found anywhere in Europe, according to the party of seventy American physicians who are here today after visiting practically every city in Europe.

"Of course," said Dr. Richard Kovacs, of New York, "we have seen many things in Europe which would help us in the hospitals of America, but we have more advanced systems and paraphernalia in the European States as a whole to show European institutions. In France, from a scientific point of view, the physicians are masters, but even their newest hospitals lack some of the most important details to be seen in hospitals of the United States. I mean by that the best manner of placing beds; arrangement of wards; wards for convalescents; gardens for airing; sanitary arrangements, etc. I believe the French neglect their convalescents too much. A relapse fifteen times out of twenty in Europe means death, a percentage that is twice or three times as high as in the United States."

Dr. Sigmund Breitenfeld, of the German hospital, New York, said: "After seeing nurses in hospitals all over the Old World, I take off my hat to our American nurses, queens of them all. The class of women I found in Paris, for instance, acting as nurses, was far below that of our own neat, trim, gentle nurses, and where in France they were more of the servant class, at home they are the equals and treated as such, of any woman who employs them.

"Our tour has been of immense educational value, for we have picked up new ideas everywhere. We stopped in Munich, Vienna, Paris, the Bohemian health resorts, Berlin, Bad Nauheim, Weisbaden, Cologne, Brussels, Amsterdam and elsewhere. Taking everything into consideration our hospitals are as good, if not superior, to anything we saw in those places which are famed for their hospitals."

"In Paris we saw the celebrated Dr. Pozzi perform a major operation at the Brocca Hospital. He had three or four assistants and I have never seen such team work anywhere. The operation was swiftly and deftly done without much hemorrhage. We were charmed. But at the new Pitié Hospital, just completed, I counted eight files in the typhoid ward. This may seem trivial, but when it is realized that these eight files could escape and propagate others to carry the contagion to patients in other wards, it looms up as a big and very important detail. That condition can not exist in an American hospital, at least in any of the newer or larger hospitals."

"I say these things not by way of criticism, but merely to show that all we saw, even in cities noted for being away up in such matters, was not perfect, and that we Americans could teach the Old World a few things if the physicians would come over and observe our work and our systems."

The American physicians will sail August 13 for America.

FEDERAL JUDGE HALL DIES IN OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Aug. 7.—Justice Samuel Pike Hall of the United States Appellate Court, died suddenly at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. A. Moore, 1948 Sixth avenue, last night. Justice Hall was sitting at the dinner table. He had been laughing and jesting with the family.

The first course had been served. Of a sudden his head dropped forward on his breast and he slid down in his chair. He died a few moments later.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES RESTORED TO ENTRY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Refutation of the claim of critics in Congress that the conservation policy means the locking up of the West, was presented by Secretary of the Interior Lane today in a statement showing that 2,000,000 acres of withdrawn public lands were restored to entry during May and June. This is an area, Secretary Lane pointed out, equal in size almost to two Alaskan territories or to three and a half states the size of Texas.

Conservation principles were applied in classifying the lands, some being definitely valued as coal properties and made available for purchase under the coal land law while others were found to be not valuable for water power sites, reservoirs, coal or potash deposits. Coal lands restored to entry or purchase in Colorado alone totaled two and a half million acres, while rejected power sites covered 350,000 acres. Idaho had 1,000,000 acres of coal and phosphate lands and 10,000 acres of power sites reopened. North Dakota had 1,400,000; South Dakota, 330,000; Oregon, 87,000; and Wyoming 438,000 acres "unlocked" after full investigation of their values.

The total withdrawals, in all public land states, on July 1, amounted to 68,009,238 acres. Coal lands made up 58,000,000 of this total. As the classification work proceeds more of the public domain will be made available for settlement without the giving away of huge fortunes in oil, coal or potash deposits to single individuals.

McADOO'S PLAN IS FAVORED BY BANKERS

Many Will Attend Conferences on Distribution of Money in Crop Sections

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Secretary McAdoo's plan to deposit an additional $50,000,000 of government funds among the banks in the agricultural sections has met with prompt approval from the bankers in the southern, western and far western states invited to attend the conferences at the treasury department today. Friday and next Thursday to confer regarding the distribution of the funds. The banks of all five far western cities included in the plan have replied they will send representatives to Washington. Out of the nineteen western cities all but three have sent favorable replies and all of the thirty-seven southern cities have been heard from.

More than seventy-five southern bankers gathered today in the office of the Assistant Secretary Williams for the first conference. The conference with western bankers is scheduled for Friday and that with the far western bankers for Thursday of next week.

Three additional cities that are to share in the distribution were made public today, but it was explained they were originally in the list though not announced with the others. They are Lexington, Ky., Durham, Minn., and Ft. Worth, Texas.

NEW COUNTERFEIT IS VERY DANGEROUS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7.—Counterfeit $5 gold pieces, with about $3.50 in gold in them, are in circulation. The secret service department of the United States has been notified and there will be an effort to run down the factory where these counterfeiters are being made.

No more dangerous counterfeit has ever made its appearance. The coin counterfeited is the new five-dollar piece with the sunken impression, a style of coin that the government officials believed, when it was adopted, would be practically impossible to counterfeit.

The new counterfeiters are not as heavy as the genuine coins. The makers have been satisfied with a profit of about $1.50 on each coin. Silver and copper is added to the 300 fine gold in making the alloy.

The counterfeiters are slightly lighter in color than the genuine. There is something of the appearance of a "sweated" coin about these pieces and they are more shiny and paler than the real coin.

The lettering, "United States of America," is not as deeply sunken as in the true coins, and the feathers on the Indian's head do not show as plainly as the genuine.

FALL FROM STAIRWAY FRACTURES AN ARM

Anahem Gazette: Mrs. Mosseman suffered a fracture of a bone in the left arm above the wrist at Anahem Landing on Sunday afternoon and was otherwise injured and severely shaken up by a fall from a stairway leading to a pavilion. One of the steps was broken and caused the fall of the aged lady who was precipitated a distance of eight feet to the ground. Her spectacles were broken and she was cut about the face in several places. Her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Lewis, had just left her, and she was accompanied by Mrs. Dickel and Mrs. Dwyer. She is aged 77 years. She is recovering nicely at the home of her daughter.

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—If you look back through the dizzy hot days of June and July, and penetrate the rains of April, you may remember that back in the early spring, Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington team, of the American League, dropped some remarks of rare wisdom. The "Old Fox" was discussing left handed pitchers, past, present and future, but mostly past, and in touching upon the future opined that all was wreck and ruin.

"There ain't no such animal" as a good port-sider (apologies to the navy for using "port") was Griffith's opinion. And just to show how much we may not know, in spite of great knowledge, Griff had on his payroll one of the best left-handers that has appeared in many years, at the very time he was sitting up nights weeping bitterly and bewailing the decay of the species. The reference is to Mr. Joseph Boehling.

Boehling's history is short. He has made it all this season, but if he keeps up the pace he has set during his first real try-out in the big leagues, he will rank among the greatest pitchers of his time or any other person's. He was the first pitcher to pass the ten consecutive victories mark and chances are bright for him to hang up more to his string of straight wins. Boehling has won every game with which he has been held solely responsible. If this is carefully figured out either by arithmetic or algebra it will be found to mean that Boehling's percentage for the year is 1.000. He has faced every team in the league and he whipped each in turn.

On the strength of his showing, coupled with the ever reliable work of wonderful Walter Johnson, Washington has jockeyed out a happy hope of beating the Athletics and taking the pennant. In case such a thing should happen congress might possibly adjourn before October, for it would never do to have the Solons shown up by being outshone, no matter what circus stunts they might pull, by the world's series.

Two years ago Boehling was an unknown. For that matter it was only nineteen years ago that the doctor who officiated introduced him to his father and mother. He pitched for a semi-professional team from Richmond, Va., in Washington one day and "Bill" Peet, sporting editor of a Washington paper, "discovered" him for Griffith who signed him. His early work was not impressive. He was as wild in his motions and delivery as an armed man with the hives. Griff sent him to Chattanooga, but that sent him some respect for its standing, as well as opposing players and began to learn how to control his shoots.

Boehling has a great fast ball and a wonderful change of pace. That is what is carrying him through. He is built to order for long service in the box, he is over six feet tall and set up in proportion.

There is no telling how far this new find will go. Early in the season he was used as a relief pitcher and including parts of games which he finished up and the eleven games he has won, he pitched 110 innings. In that time 28 runs were scored off his delivery. He gave thirty-four bases on balls and was hit safely 89 times. He struck out fifty-seven men in those 110 innings.

As his control improves he will be even harder to beat than he is now. Against Chicago, which made his eleventh straight victory, Boehling gave seven passes. Where Griffith was wallowing about lack of left-handers a few months ago, he has one that he wouldn't sell "for all the money in the world," if you can believe what the Old Fox says.

Everyone may now be prepared to take off their hats to Maurice E. McLoughlin, the American tennis champion, as the most wonderful player that has ever been developed in this or any other country. The California boy is in a class by himself. No one has ever approached his wonderful service, and his terrific smashes, which are true and deadly in their effect, are distinctly a McLoughlin production. Only 28 years old, McLoughlin out-generated and outplayed English veterans in the matches for the Davis cup, who were experts at the game when McLoughlin was a schoolboy. He is far above any other player in America.

But for McLoughlin, the American team might have had a narrow squeak in lifting the Davis cup from the Englishmen. Harold H. Hackett, his team-mate in the doubles, was hopelessly outclassed. The Englishmen played to Hackett and it was only McLoughlin's wonderful work that turned the tide. McLoughlin was defeated for the all-England title by A. F. Wilding, but it was only after the red-headed boy had been through a grueling series of preliminary matches and was beginning to go stale. Wilding merely kept in shape while the challengers fought it out among themselves and went in fresh to defend his championship. J. C. Parke registered a victory over McLoughlin in the first single singles match of the challenge round but McLoughlin was far off form that day. He appeared at his best in the doubles and in the final match with C. T. Dixon, and experts agree Parke would be telling a different story had he met Mc-

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Large quantities of excellent nectarines have been received on the market the past day or so. They sell around 4 cents a pound. Both the white and red varieties are in evidence. The nectarine is a favored fruit with many people, and it has practically all the attractions of the peach, with a more delicate flavor. A good crop is produced in California; this year the output is estimated to be a little larger than usual.

Bartlett pears show a tendency to advance, owing to lighter supply and good demand. Cannery needs appear to have made for the firmness in the market. The crop this year is about normal. Plums are scarce, and as a consequence are firm. Quite a number of varieties are still to be had. The berry market is rather dull. Blackberries and strawberries bring around 5 to 6 cents a basket, and Logan and raspberries about 7 to 9. The warm weather has proved rather adverse to the crop, and has caused the reduction of local receipts. Apples continue in good supply, and the market seems about steady. The following bids were made at the Produce Exchange, Thursday, August 6, 1913: Gravenstein, four-tier, $1.50, and four and a half tier, $1.15. There were no offerings. Walnuts were offered at 19 1/2 cents on the exchange. Peaches are plentiful and cheap.

Cantaloupes are a little higher, owing to the fact that the hot weather has damaged some of the vines in local sections. The supply is fair, however. Casabas show easier tendencies.

LEMON TREES BRING ACTION
Failure to Deliver Them Causes Nursery Company to Bring Suit for $1930

Lemon trees were worth more this spring than they were a year or so ago. That may have been the reason about 2000 lemon trees were not delivered to the Reeding & Wood Nursery Co. in the north end of the county. Whatever the reason, the nursery company alleges in its complaint, filed today by Attorneys Tipton & Caffier, that D. A. Davis and F. X. Thuet failed to keep a contract to deliver some lemon stock contracted to be delivered. The complaint states that the contract was signed on Jan. 27, 1912, whereby the defendants were to furnish 4500 lemon trees to the nursery company. In April of this year 2423 trees were still due, and only 482 of that number were delivered. The company declares that in order to meet deliveries it had to buy stock at a cost of $911 more than the price contracted in the Davis-Thuet deal, of which $4028.30 had been advanced for the remaining trees. Judgment for $1930.30 is asked.

GOOD FISHING TODAY AT BEACH

The first run of mackerel that Newport Beach has had this season began this morning at that place. The fish are of good size, averaging about eight inches in length. Many good catches of the accompanying yellowtail were made from the Newport wharf. In fact everyone with big nets hooked all the fish they wanted. The mackerel run this season is about six weeks late. As a usual thing there is good sport at Newport Beach about the first of July. From present indications this run is likely to make good fishing for some time if the Italian and Japanese fishermen from San Pedro do not get wind of it and come with their deadly long-pole nets. These fishermen would soon ruin the present good fishing. Local sportsmen are strong in their denunciations of these foreigners and declare that if something is not done at once the fishing industry in Southern California will be ruined.

HAYNES AUTOS IN SANTA ANA
Two of the Machines that Travelled Over 3500 Miles on Tour Arrive

Carrying banners of the Indiana Automobile Manufacturers' Association and scarred from battles with road conditions which have varied from the finest boulevards to the treacherous sands of the desert and the thrilling grades of the Sierras and Rockies, the two Haynes cars which played such a prominent part in the recent Indiana-to-Pacific tour, arrived in this city today.

More than 3550 miles have been registered by the speedometers on these two Haynes cars, one a six-cylinder model and the other a four-cylinder. Their presence in this city comes more or less in the shape of a surprise, as it was generally understood that when the tour reached Los Angeles all the machines were to be shipped back to the factories from which they started on July 1st.

W. B. Cochran, president and general manager of the Haynes Auto Sales Company, interceded in the plans of the factory officials, however, and succeeded in obtaining delivery of these cars on this coast so that he might avail himself of a splendid advertising feature, in which opinion he was warmly supported by the local Haynes representative.

Participants in the Indiana automobile men's tour, declare that the performances of the two Haynes cars in the big pathfinding tour across the continent was a splendid exhibition of the sturdiness and dependability of the cars. They are the product of the factory which was the first to build automobiles in America. In this connection it is interesting to note that a feature of the Indiana tour was the presence of Elwood Haynes, popularly known as the "Father of the American automobile industry." The great inventor rode in car number 12, the six-cylinder model.

Despite the grueling the cars were given in their 3600-mile journey across the continent, both Haynes machines came through with flying colors. The Haynes cars are the only machines out of the nineteen that made the trip from Indianapolis which have been kept running steadily ever since the completion of the tour. From this city the Haynes party will drive to San Diego today. The motorists will eventually bring up again in San Francisco, when it is believed the cars will have to their credit close to the 4000 miles. When it is believed that the
